

BINGHAM LINE QUITE POPULAR WITHOUT CHANGE

Taylorville People Would Change Its Course.

WILLING TO BUILD GRADE
FINAL SURVEY WORK TO BEGIN ON MONDAY.

A lively contest has been started over the location of the electric line from Salt Lake to Bingham. Property owners between this city and the mining camp are determined if possible to locate the new road so that it will accommodate them and benefit their property. Taylorville people have become particularly active in the matter. They have submitted a proposition to extend the line from its present terminus on the west side of Jordan river in the southwestern part of the city down the Redwood road to Taylorville and from there by the shortest route to Bingham. The original route favored by the promoters of the enterprise is from the terminus of the old road, several miles to the southwest by the most direct route in a southwesterly direction to Bingham.

The Taylorville people are willing to grade the road for the new electric line if their route is accepted. If the road is built this way it will be about one mile longer than if the original route is chosen. The Taylorville route will take the road through a rich agricultural country that in time will be densely populated, and this would naturally add to the business of the line.

VETERAN OF PHILIPPINES TO VISIT UTAH HOME

John A. Christensen, brother of Parley P. Christensen, who is exalted ruler of Lodge No. 55, B. P. O. Elks, is due to arrive in Logan, Aug. 26, and his six brothers and sisters, all of whom reside in Salt Lake, will go to Logan and meet him at the family home. Mr. Christensen went to the Philippines with the Idaho volunteers in 1898. He left the service soon after hostilities ceased in the vicinity of Manila and became superintendent of the Philippine government in 1901. He has been in the Philippines for six months and will leave for Salt Lake Aug. 28, when he will take ship and return to Utah.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Monday night, at the Salt Lake theatre, will begin the engagement of Ethel Barrymore, who is presented by Charles Frohman, with the original New York cast, and production of Hubert Henry Davies' comedy, "Cousin Kate." This is the opening of Miss Barrymore's fifth year of continuous success as a star under Mr. Frohman's management, she having produced in the four years "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines," "A Counter Mouse," "Carrots" and "Cousin Kate." It is said that the role of Kate affords Miss Barrymore unusual opportunities, and she has absolute naturalness and refinement and an individuality of undeniably character. The company includes Bruce McRae, Grant Stewart, Beatrice Astor, Fanny Anderson, and Ruth and Augustin D. Wilkes. The three "counter mice" are in the three love story without any theatrical effects, but nevertheless said to be one of the most delightful and charming comedies ever seen in New York in which Miss Barrymore played five different engagements, as often as other contracts would permit. The engagement here is for two performances only. The seat sale begins this morning.

The cleverest child artist that has ever been seen in Salt Lake is Baby Blythe, who is appearing at the Grand theatre. Baby Blythe is just seven years of age, but she has been a member of the professional ranks for some months as a singer and dancer, appearing on the coast vaudeville circuit, which consists of Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland and Seattle. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shore. Mr. Shore is an official of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters in New York, and she is with her daughter in Salt Lake. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Monroe. Last night the talented little woman put on a new dance that thoroughly captivated her audience.

Mrs. Fairbanks tells how neglect of warning symptoms will soon prostrate a woman. She thinks woman's safeguard is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and neglect are the cause of untold female suffering, not only with the laws of health but with the chance of a cure. I did not heed the warnings of headaches, nervous pains, and general weariness, until I was well nigh prostrated. I knew I had to do something. Happily I did the right thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound faithfully, according to directions, and was rewarded in a few weeks to find that my aches and pains disappeared, and I again felt the glow of health through my body. Since I have been well, I have been more careful. I have also advised a number of my sick friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they have never had reason to be sorry. Yours very truly, Mrs. May Fairbanks, 210 South 7th St., Minneapolis, Minn."

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

MARKET REMAINS WITHOUT CHANGE

Prices the Same Throughout the Entire List.

GRAIN SHIPMENT BACKWARD
DELAY IN THRESHING CAUSES QUOTATIONS TO HOLD FIRM.

The market was featureless yesterday. There was not a single change in price in the entire list. The quality of all produce is unusually good, and the supply large. At present, low prices, however, dealers are able to clean up the market fairly clean.

It was expected that there would be a falling off in prices of grain and flour this week, as the crop is nearly all harvested. The farmers, however, are slow this year in threshing and little has yet been shipped in, not enough to break the price. In another week or two the market is expected to be flooded and the break usual at that time will be sharp and decided, whereas in former years the drop in prices has been gradual from week to week.

Following are yesterday's prices:

Meat. Beef, 1c to 2c per pound. Veal, prime, 1c to 2c. Mutton, 8c to 10c. Pork, 12c to 15c. Spring lamb, 10c to 12c. Hind quarter, 12c. Dressed lamb, 12c to 15c; lamb chops, 25c.

SALT LAKE'S HOBBO DOG BEATS WAY INTO CIRCUS

True to his name, "Tramp," the premier hobo dog of Salt Lake City, "beat" his way into Ringling's circus Wednesday afternoon, and for the entire two hours of the performance was the delight of children and grown-ups who were seated along the north end benches.

This dog, who has fought and eaten with the canine "brotherhood" since he first learned the different leg and neck grips, is notorious for the ease with which he effects entrance to anything he wishes to see, whether it be auto races or barroom brawls. But never before has he attended a real three-ring circus.

Maybe it was excitement and maybe it was his natural bulldogging that prompted him to chase everything in the way of a horse or animal out of his precinct. Whenever the circus succeeded in making and having fun. From the first entrance of the cream-colored Jerusalem Crusade thoroughbred, the last of the whirl of equines, "Tramp" was there. He didn't bite any of them, just frisked and barked about their heels. Many persons thought it was part of the show at first until they heard a couple of policemen chuckling at the bulldog's antics.

"Why that blamed 'Tramp,'" said one, "just knew there was a circus in town today and made up his mind to see it. I've seen him go through all kinds of ticket sellers and as a humber he hasn't an equal in this city. He's a vag, hangs around the uptown district all the time."

DRIVES INTRUDERS AWAY.
Smallpox Flag Used to Keep Out Visitors.

In order to prevent attorneys and others who had no business in his office, Clerk George E. Maycock of the city court, located in the basement of the joint building, yesterday put up scarlet fever, smallpox and diphtheria signs over the doors. As a result visitors were few, and the office force was able to work without constant interruption.

There is a door between the court room and the clerk's office. Attorneys and others are constantly passing through this door, which is very noisy. It opens not into the courtroom of the clerk's office, but behind the rail. It is affirmed that during the progress of a suit attorneys and others interested in a case will use the clerk's office to lounge in. The clerk says these visitors talk loudly and interrupt the court employees and the department of public works, which also uses the room.

The clerk states that people abuse the common courtesies extended them. They go into the vault without permission and help themselves to papers, which, when through using, they scatter about the tables of the vault. It is believed that the posting of the contagious disease flags has abated the nuisance, and that the clerical force will now be able to do its work without constantly being disturbed.

RECEIVER APPOINTED.
Wilmington, Del., Aug. 11.—The Security Trust & Safe Deposit company was today appointed receiver of the estate of the United Button company, a Delaware corporation, until a trustee, in bankruptcy, can be appointed. The receiver was required to give bond in the sum of $100,000.

PRIZES FOR FRUIT Horticultural Society Offers Cash and Diplomas to Salt Lake Growers.

At the last regular meeting of the Salt Lake Horticultural society it was voted to offer premiums limited to this county upon orchards and fruit gardens—two cash premiums and a diploma to each.

First, for the best apple or pear orchard. Second, for the best orchard of stone fruits, and third, for the best small fruit garden. The points on which the awards will be made will include the varieties, quality and abundance of the fruit, as well as upon cultivation, irrigation and treatment against insect pests. Entries for the foregoing should be made to A. W. Casey, 25 Commercial block, on or before Sept. 15, 1904. Application to Mr. Casey will procure details in relation to the foregoing. It is hoped that a generous response will be made to this offer, not so much on account of the premiums as to encourage the business of fruit growing and to bring the horticulturists in touch with each other.

Apple and Pear Orchard—First prize, $10; second prize, $5; third prize, diploma. Small Fruit Garden—First prize, $5; second prize, $3; third prize, diploma. Stone Fruit Orchard—First prize, $5; second prize, $3; third prize, diploma. Small Fruit Garden—First prize, $5; second prize, $3; third prize, diploma.

COURT NOTES.

Ara Keppler has commenced suit against Adolph Ottlinger, ticket scalper, for $500 damages. The complainant alleges that on July 30 she delivered to him a $50 bicycle, a $4 suit and a $50 trunk containing $50 worth of wearing apparel, to be taken by him to the Rio Grande depot. Instead of doing this, she alleges that he converted the property to his own use and refused to return the articles to her on demand.

Margaritha Gleech has commenced legal proceedings against Mrs. Gertrude Ryckman to recover one pair of diamond earrings and one diamond solitaire finger ring, valued at $1,000, which the complainant states Mrs. Ryckman took from the owner wrongfully. Damages to the amount of $500, in addition to the cost of the diamonds, are asked.

G. D. Miles, the local swimming expert, has commenced a divorce against his wife, Juliet Miles, on the ground of desertion. They were married in San Francisco in 1897, and on June 23, 1902, Miles alleges his wife left him.

John D. Scheid, an infant, by William T. Scheid, his guardian, has commenced suit against the Utah Light & Railway company for $2,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained on a West Second South street car July 10. The complainant alleges that while sitting on the front seat of the car the motorman allowed the brake handle to whirl around and hitting the boy in the face, breaking his nose, and otherwise disfiguring him.

Judge Morse yesterday granted Mari-an D. Snow a divorce from Levi Snow on the ground of failure to provide for the support of the wife. The couple were married at Montpelier, Ida., Oct. 17, 1900. The husband is ordered to pay the costs of the suit.

The district court yesterday issued a decree quieting title to lots 16 and 17, block 1, amended plan of Lincoln park subdivision of lot 11, block 21, five-acre plat A, Big field survey, the property real with the plaintiffs, E. McDonald et al., who had commenced suit against George Arthur Rice and Emily Woodman.

John A. Thomas has been granted a decree of divorce from Anna T. Thomas on the ground of desertion. They were married Jan. 1 in Tempe, Ariz., and have one son, whose custody is awarded to the mother.

Judge Morse yesterday issued an order granting Emily M. Gardellus a decree of divorce from John Gardellus on the ground of desertion and non-support. The two children were given over to the mother. The couple were married in 1900.

Rheumatism.
When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives instant relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan house, El Reno, O. T., writes June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief. 2c, 5c, 10c. Sold by Z. C. M. L. Drug Dept."

FAILED TO MAKE HIS ESCAPE
SUICIDE AFTER RUNNING FIGHT WITH OFFICERS.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 11.—Isaac Gravelle, on trial for robbing a powder house near Helena last September of giant powder, which was used in wrecking Northern Pacific trains, escaped from the Lewis and Clark county jail this afternoon after probably fatally shooting Tony Korisek, a deputy sheriff. Pursued by deputies and John Raab, a butcher, who was armed, Gravelle took refuge in an alley beside the residence of Governor Joseph K. Toole, where a pistol duel took place. After an exchange of shots Gravelle ran into the basement of the governor's house, where he shot and killed himself. He had been wounded by bullets from the guns of his pursuers.

Deputy Sheriff Shot.
The escape took place at 2 o'clock, as Gravelle was about to be led from the jail to the court room in the county building across the street. Deputy Sheriff Korisek and Jailer Jones were in the office when the former heard a rattle out of the cell room. Suddenly Gravelle pulled a revolver and held Korisek up. The latter made a move toward his gun and Gravelle fired twice at him, both bullets taking effect. One struck his breast a few inches from his heart. Jones was not armed and threw up his hands. Gravelle ordered the jailer to open the door of the jail, which he did. He then walked deliberately out of the jail and to the street corner, thirty feet away.

Running Fight.
By that time the sheriff's deputies began to appear and one shot was fired from the court house. Gravelle then ran one block eastward, where he tried to mount a horse that happened to be loitering there. He was too hotly pressed, however, and continued down an alley and across a lot to Fifth avenue, down which he was chased by Raab, who had joined in the pursuit. Turning down Sixth avenue a moment later, Gravelle had taken refuge in the alley beside the governor's house, from which he had fled when he was fired at by Sheriff Spurgeon Raab and six shots at him there and Gravelle, wounded, ran into the basement of the governor's house, where he blew out his brains.

Gravelle a Bad Man.
Gravelle was convicted five months ago of sending threatening letters to officials of the Northern Pacific, of whom he demanded $50,000. It was proved that he had dynamited Northern Pacific trains and property in an effort to blackmail the company. He was captured after a long campaign that cost the Northern Pacific $24,000. He was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. Gravelle had been in the penitentiary twice before. He was a range rider and cattle hustler, and was regarded as a desperate and dangerous man.

Sheriff O'Connell does not know how Gravelle got his gun. It must have been smuggled in to him by a trusty or a visitor, and he may have had it for days. After he had shot the deputy sheriff in the jail office he took the officer's gun, and it was with that weapon that he did most of the shooting at the house of the governor.
